Biography

Paul Gamez is a seasoned trial attorney with over 30 years of courtroom experience, representing clients in high-stakes business and employment litigation. He has tried numerous cases to verdict in both federal and state courts and has successfully handled arbitrated disputes across a range of industries. Mr. Gamez's litigation portfolio includes complex matters involving securities fraud, shareholder rights, breach of contract, intellectual property, trade secrets, and restrictive covenants.

Known for his strategic trial preparation and persuasive advocacy, Mr. Gamez has served as lead counsel in cases with multimillion-dollar exposures and has secured favorable outcomes through both verdicts and settlements. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, reflecting his recognized excellence in trial practice. In addition to his litigation work, he contributes to the legal community through his roles on the Iowa Supreme Court Advisory Committee and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Iowa Federal Practice Committee.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Gamez worked as a business unit leader where he was responsible for business unit financial results and business litigation for a large national equipment financing firm.
