Kyle Wilcox counsels individuals with matters relating to estate planning, probate and tax law. He helps families plan the disposition of their assets, both during lifetime and at death, and to accomplish the most optimal estate and gift tax plan. Mr. Wilcox assists clients with the administration of trusts and with the probate of estates at death. He understands tax consequences associated with business transactions and estate planning as he prepares personal and fiduciary (trust and estate) income tax returns.

Prior to joining Simmons Perrine Moyer Bergman in 2006, Mr. Wilcox was an associate in the corporate and business law practice group of Hellmuth & Johnson, PLLC, in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

"(Kyle) is very personable and knowledgeable. Took the necessary time to review information. Never rushed."
